Kovacs 299. RPC I 3839 corr. (date). Very rare and undoubtedly among the finest known examples. A magnificent, very well struck and beautifully patinated piece with a splendid portrait. Good very fine. From an important collection of Armenian coins. Aristobulus is certainly among the most fascinating of the numerous 1st century Roman client kings. Born the son of Herod of Chalcis and the great-grandson of Herod the Great, and appointed by Nero to King of Armenia Minor in 54, his life is closely entwined with Roman, Jewish and Armenian history. The most famous event in his life, however, revolves around the infamous Jewish princess. Starting price: 1'000 EUR |
