- 561 Byzantine Period, circa 8th - 9th Century ADnA fine bronze reliquary cross . Depicted on the face is the Virgin Orans, or, standing facing with upraised hands and wearing a long robe. Beneath her is the full length robed figure of Saint George and to each side smaller robed busts of the Apostles John and Peter. A single one line inscription above is either a local dialect or simply blundered, but intending to mean "All Hallowed". nA superb example and finely engraved, some adhesions to the interior.The tradition of relics became popularized by the Empress Helena who, as mother of Constantine The Great and with Imperial funding, embarked on a pilgrimage to the Holy Land in 326. It was during this trip where she brought back many items including a cross which she believed to have been the very same upon which Jesus was crucified. 43.7 g (L: 68.2 l: 43.5) SOLD AS SEEN, NO RETURN! 50
