743 PB Greek sling bullet. Thrace (c. 4th-1st centuries BC) Sling bullet is with an image of a bee on one side and with an inscription ΚΑΛΑ (Κάλα, Kala) on the other, which may be a name. Cf. Concordia 9, 900-902. Well known are other similar lead sling bullets - practically with alternating symbols - bee and scorpion, as on them invariably is written Κάλα, which is believed to originate from the island of Rhodes. On these sling bullets Κάλα can both be a name - Kalas, probably a military commander, so can not be a name, but a word neuter plural - καλά, which should be translated as 'nice things'. Of course, the irony here would be obvious. These 'nice things' are designed to destroy enemies and to sting like a bee or scorpion, and the message of those with the image of a bee can be understood as: "nice things sting like a bee." See, M. Manov - N. Torbov 2016, 'Inscribed Lead Sling Bullets with the Name of Alexander the Great and with Other Names and Symbols Found in Thrace', Archaeologia Bulgarica 20, 32. Weight: 27.89 g.
