2681 Ancient Late Roman-Pre Byzantine, Probably 'Military Saints' Silver Plaquette. Circa 4th-5th Century AD. Obv: Three Military Saints? wearing roman army uniforms, holding spears and shields, Monograms on left top. Rev: Large cross potent with embellishments. Very interesting Late roman piece. The military saints, warrior saints and soldier saints are patron saints, martyrs and other saints associated with the military. They were originally composed of the early Christians who were soldiers in the Roman army during the persecution of Christians, especially the Diocletianic Persecution of AD 303-313. Most of the early Christian military saints were soldiers of the Roman Empire who had become Christian and, after refusing to participate in Imperial cult rituals of loyalty to the Roman Emperor, were subjected to corporal punishment including torture and martyrdom. 2682 Early Byzantine Silver Spoon. Circa mid-6th-mid-7th century. Probably once part of a set, this handsome spoon exemplifies the exceptional quality of the finest Early Byzantine silver. The outer part of the spoon's bowl is decorated with embellishments. The tapering stem with traces of gilding displays in niello the name " ΣΑΠΡΟCΟΝΜΙΦΙΛΗ " . Also on the disk is the monogram of the as-yet-identified owner. The use of Latin for the inscriptions associates the spoon with Roman imperial tradition, which was transferred to the new Rome, Constantinople, in the fourth century.
