Catalogus musei Caesarei Vindobonensis numorum veterum, Wien 1779, S. 272, Nr. 50. Very rare variety! The "F" in the reverse legend of this and the following piece shows a "hook" at the bottom left, which is also found on denarii of Pescennius Niger (see Buttrey, NC 1992, p. XX). The die cutter of the present piece had obviously already cut dies for Pescennius Niger, either in Antioch or in a mobile mint. Bickford-Smith (RIN XLVI, 1994/1995) postulates a camp mint accompanying the army as soon as Severus reached Asia Minor in battle with Pescennius Niger. This would also explain the numerous irregularities in the inscription.
