1079 PB Greek sling bullet. Thrace. Circa 4th-1st century BC. Sling bullet with an image of a scorpion on one side and with an inscription ΚΑΛΑ (Κάλα, Kala) on the other, which may be a name. Similar lead sling bullets, often featuring alternating symbols like a scorpion and bee, typically bear the inscription Κάλα, believed to originate from Rhodes. The word Κάλα could refer to a name—likely Kalas, a military commander—or the neuter plural καλά, meaning "nice things." The irony is clear: these "nice things" are designed to harm, much like the sting of a bee or scorpion. Therefore, the message on bullets with a scorpionsymbol might be interpreted as: "nice things sting like a bee." (See M. Manov & N. Torbov, 2016, Inscribed Lead Sling Bullets with the Name of Alexander the Great and Other Names and Symbols Found in Thrace, Archaeologia Bulgarica 20, 32.). Weight: 27.42 g. Diameter: 32.90 mm.
