2 Byzantine Empire Solidus. Justin II (565-578) BCV-407, MIB II-20, BMC Byz-287; Emperor Justin II (565-578); Gold, 4.33 g.; Diameter 21 mm; Justin II (AD 565-578). Ravenna, AD 567-578. D N I - VSTI - NVS PP AVG, diademed, helmeted and cuirassed bust facing, holding in right hand globe surmounted by Victory with wreath, shield with horseman device on left shoulder / VICTORI - A AVGGG Z (retrograde) Constantinopolis seated facing, head turned right, holding spear in right hand and globe cruciger in left hand, CONOP (sic) in exergue. Sear 407. DOC 210a. Rare Italian-mint issue. Good Extremely Fine. Ravenna, capital of the Western Roman Empire during much of the fifth century AD, passed under the control of Odovacer in AD 476 and was captured by Theodoric the Ostrogoth a decade later, becoming the capital of the Ostrogothic Kingdom. Justinian's great general Belisarius recaptured the city for the Empire in AD 540, employing the ruse that he accepted the Goth's invitation to become Emperor of the West. Once having gained the city, Belisarius renounced all claim to the title and duly handed Ravenna over to Justinian, but the suspicious East Roman ruler called Belisarius back to Constantinople. The Goths rose in revolt and the Italian war dragged on for another decade before Narses' decisive victory in AD 552. Ravenna remained the Byzantine capital of Italy until it finally fell to the Lombards in AD 751; XF

10 Roman Imperial. Denarius 49 BC. Q. Sicinius, time of Julius Caesar. NGC Choice VF Scarce Denarius from Imperial time, under Julius Caesar as dictator. Q. Sicinius, early 49 BC. The obverse features a head of Fortuna. The reverse depicts a laurel wreath, a palm frond, and a caduceus, emblems of a triumph, indicating Sicinius' hope for a Pompeian victory. Quintus Sicinius, triumvir monetalis in 49 BC, possibly the same as the man mentioned by Cicero in 51. A supporter of Pompeius, with whom he departed Rome ahead of Caesar's approach, but he continued to mint coins for Pompeius during their flight. It is the last normal issue of denarii before Caesar's occupation of Rome, at which time Sicinius fled east along with the rest of the Pompeians. Sharp details, NGC ChVF, one banker Mark "S". Very interesting and important historical coin!
